Studies Can Be Trying At Times

But The Other Times . . .

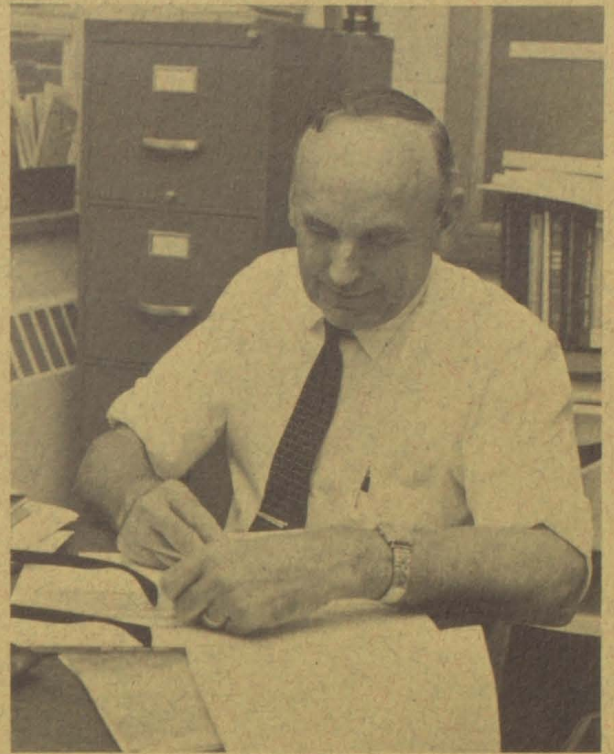

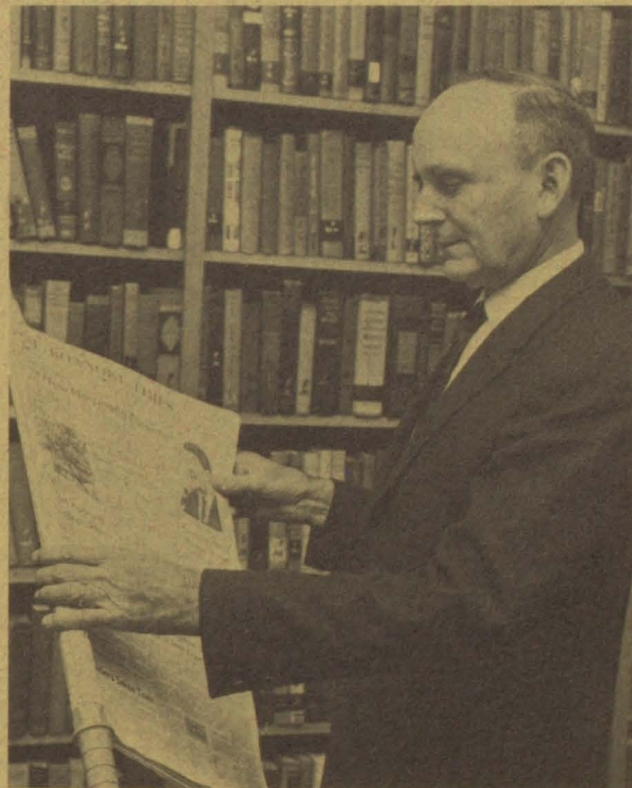

Dedication

Students face many trials throughout their career. We feel that these trials are lightened, somewhat, by the kindness and understanding of our faculty. We, the 1971 Senior Class, feel that we might show our appreciation to the one who has helped us most by dedicating this, the 1971 ECHO, to our sponsor, Mr. J. M. Thomas.

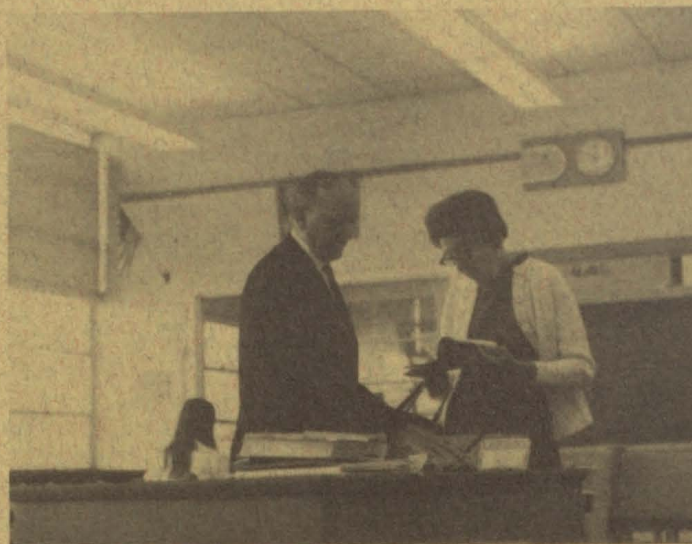

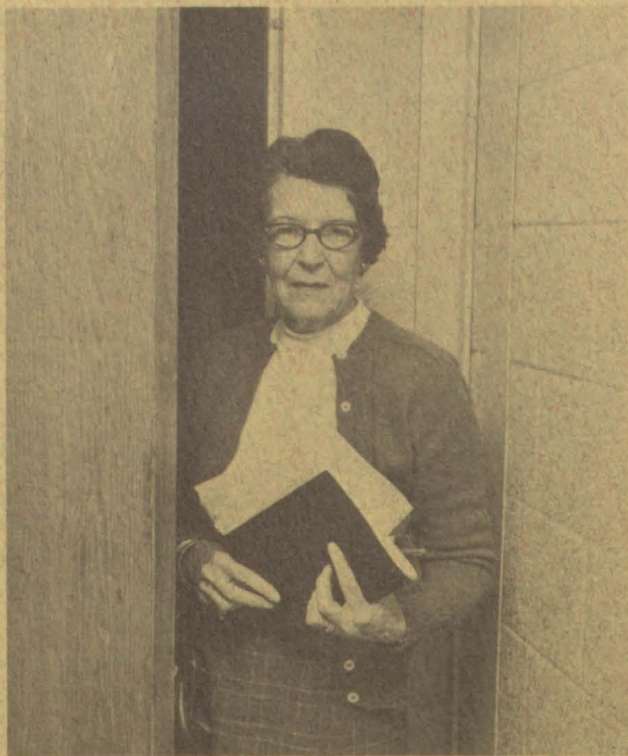

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas

In Honor

The 1971 Senior Class wishes to honor their co-sponsor, Mrs. Ruth Kegley, for her help and guidance through the past three years.

Mr. Thomas and Mrs. Kegley work in close association to help the Senior class.

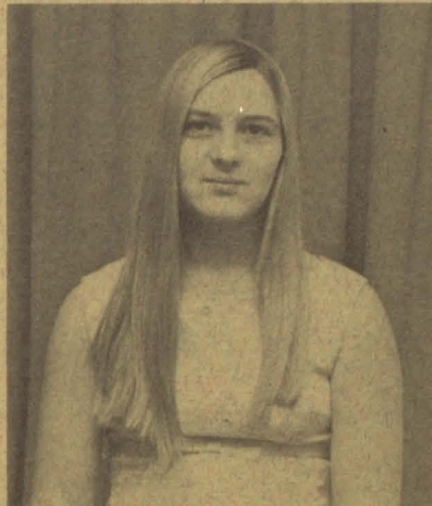

Miss Echo And Candidates

Every year, a girl is selected from each class to sell subscriptions for "THE ECHO". The girl who sells the most annuals gains the title of Miss Echo. Candidates for Miss Echo 1971 were: Linda Munsey, Twelfth grade; Ginger Kidd, Eleventh grade; Sheree Sadler, Tenth grade; Paula McPeak, Ninth grade; Sharon Goins, Eighth grade

Prom 70-71

On Saturday evening, May 2, 1970 the Wagner Auditorium was converted into a spring garden as the 1971 Seniors presented "This Magic Moment." The focal point was a gigantic wishing well with a babbling watterfall in the background. Music was provided by the "Velvet Soul" and even those who didn't care to dance enjoyed the delicious refreshments.

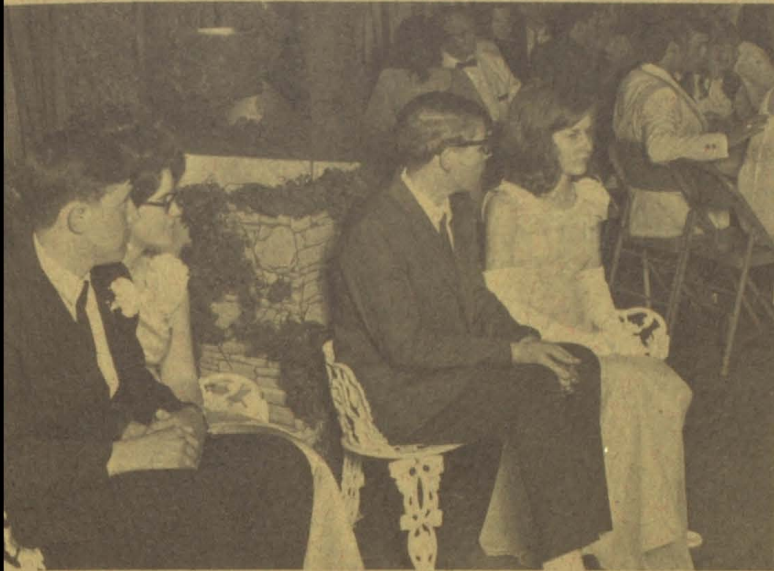

Cindy Muncy, Anne Dum, and Sheree Sadler attend refreshment table.

Sandra Green crowns Queen Bonnie Blankenship and King Terry Gordon

Members of the Bland County School Board were honored guests at the Junior-Senior Prom.

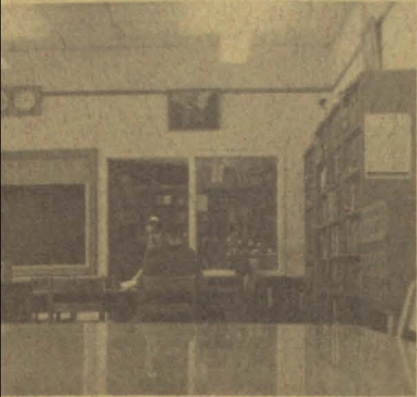

Only those who have put in long hours of work for a Prom can know what a tiring but rewarding job it is.

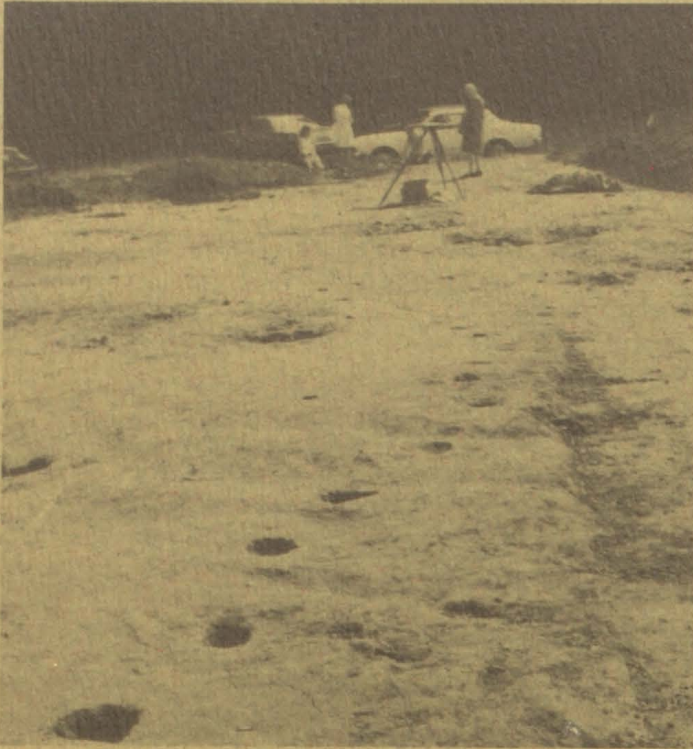

The road to becoming a Senior is a long journey, but surprisingly enough, we've finally reached our goal.

Archeological Excavation In Bland County

In June 1970, a group of archaeologists, directed by Col. Howard A. MacCord, uncovered an Indian village near Bastian, in Bland County. The excavation showed that the ancient village, about 200 years old, consisted of 11 houses and 90 to 100 inhabitants. The Indians were thought to have been a peaceful tribe and died primarily of disease. Col. MacCord said that the importance of the Bland find was that it was the oldest and most complete Indian community yet unearthed east of the Mississippi River. In all, 14 skeletons were recovered and are now stored in the state museum in Richmond.

Teachers' Aides

In today's world of education teacher's aides are indispensable. Their major function is to give the teacher more time for instruction by grading papers, fixing bulletin boards, and doing other odd jobs in the classroom. Not only the teachers, but also the students benefit from their help.
