Messages to the Seniors . . .

"I'll miss the yearbook gang and all we went through to get the book done. I'll also miss trying to get quotes and pictures from you the rest of you!

Best of Luck Class 2013

- Ms. Harless

"I will miss the boys casually walking through and checking themselves out.

Good'ole Boys!"

- Missy

"I will remember the class of 2013 for several reasons:

First, I will remember 1st period Polycom, where I was threatened constantly by Jared King; who took advantage of my handicap to place the Polycom remote out of my reach. Secondly, my 2nd period Government class who always had opinions on our current event stories. Thirdly, my 7th period Government class, who were like a box full of puppies to control, and who laughed incessantly at each others jokes."

"TAKE CARE, YOU GUYS AND COME VISIT!!"

- Ms. Bowling

"I will miss playing Star Wars Trivial Pursuit with my nerd Star War's students . . . and Dillow."

- Mrs. Sexton

"This year's senior group has a variety of personalities. . . Many are laid back and easy going. This makes them easy to work with. We are always thankful for that!"

- Bertha Dillow

"I will miss the Seniors smiling faces and their voices echoing in the hallway."

- Vickie Magyar

"The Class of 2013 is definitely unique. I'll miss their constant chatter, their style being their very own, and success being the name of the game . . . love you guys!"

- Iris Strock

"The Class of 2013 will be remembered as a fine group of unique young people. I first met most of you when you were fifth graders. You were a very impressive group then and I'll never forget your sweet faces. But after facing hard work and trials of growing up and high school you are ready to meet the challenges of life. I think all of you will be successful and productive members of society. Yes, you will be missed!"

"Love and Best Wishes,"

- Sylvia Williams

"All the REDNECKS!!!"

-Danielle Russo

"I will miss all the time spent with Chase, John, Derek, and all the others trying to "skip into my class!"

"Best Wishes Class of 2013"

-Rich Hankins

"I'll miss seeing everyone in the hallway between classes."

- Mrs. Umbarger

Dear John, " I can't believe you're actually leaving and I won't have you in school next year. I'm going to be so bored! I love you, Cutie."

- Ariel Dean

"I'm going to miss their humor!

Especially Alyssa!"

-Tori Smith

"I'll miss playing sports with the seniors. Their craziness and Alyssa's ability to make me laugh. Just being around them every day. I love you guys!"

-Linsey Dean

" I am going to miss the boys banging on the door before 6th period. I'm going to miss Rachel squalling and screaming at Jared. I'm going to miss bossing them and telling them to get to work and not be late for class. Most of all I'm going to miss seeing them every day."

- Mrs. Hartley

"I'll miss all the laughs and good times!"

-Dylan Walker

"The crazy times we had!!!!"

- Travis King

Class

" I will miss old Zach and Daniel."

- Dillon

"I will miss Rachel and Kelsey."

-Karessia

"The list is endless:

- My awesome volleyball players.

-Romeo and Juliet

-awkward conversations

-book talks

-seeing who is the latest to class

-all of your beautiful faces."

-Mrs. Shelton

"What I'll miss the most . . .

All the seniors in Mrs.

Hartley's 4th period class!"

- Luke Litton

"To the Graduates of 2013:

Dream big-You and only you set the course for your future."

I remember years ago,
you were so little then

Sometimes,

I can't help but wish,
that you were small again.

I've cried when you've faced heartaches,
and saw, that as you grew,
nothing broke your spirit,
instead it strengthened you.
I'm filled with mixed emotions,
as I hold back all the tears
and with much pride remember,
back so many years.

When I first held you in my arms,
if only I'd have known,
the years would feel like moments,
after you had grown.

You are a child,
though my eyes,

I guess you'll always be,
that baby boy who changed my life,
and means the world to me!

We are so proud of you and love you very much.

Congratulations!

Love, Mom, Dad, and Judy
